THE NAME ADVISOR FOR PEOPLE

There are many reasons you might want to analyze a name. Perhaps you are considering a name change or are expecting a child. In any case, it is important to recognize that the name you choose is only one part of the picture that determines who you will become.

A name is not unlike a blueprint. It reveals the talents, shortcomings, likes and dislikes, and a wide range of other traits, that were gifted on the day you received your name. Although your name may remain unchanged for decades, you evolve and change over time. This evolution begins with your date of birth. If a name change takes place later in life, it alters some of the traits and characteristics of the individual going forward, but the birth date and original birth name will continue to have the greatest impact.

In short, your name is YOU; your date of birth is YOUR PATH. Intertwined and co-dependent, every building block in a personality's DNA has the potential to change or disappear entirely, just as a missing quality can be learned or unlearned.

HOW TO READ THIS REPORT

No name is perfect. What you should look for are the specific strengths and talents you hope will benefit the person receiving the name.

If the name you are analyzing is for an unborn child, the report will only describe personality traits as reflected in the name you choose. Although it will be an incomplete picture (since the date of birth is unknown) it will still be a specific and detailed reading of the person about to be born.

The full name at birth describes their Personality, Hearts Desire, and Expression. If the child has already been born, use this Name Advisor to try a range of names. Once you have narrowed your choices, you may want to follow up with a complete Personality Profile, since you now also have the date of birth.

If you are considering a name change for yourself, the Name Advisor provides opportunities to try several names and variations. However, choosing a new name is not unlike buying a suit; it needs to fit. It is less important to find a name with a specific quality than to find one that suits you and feels comfortable to the person you know yourself to be.

Note: The report is written as if the person already exists.

HOW HIS NAME NUMBERS STACK UP

All numbers divisible by 3 are creative. He has a 9 Expression, 6 Heart's Desire, and 3 Personality as his core name numbers. This indicates he has considerable creative ability. The challenge lies in all three numbers being weighted on the creative, idealistic side, leaving a lack of pragmatic, focused numbers.

He has a very active imagination that feeds his creativity. He could be a writer, musician, or poet (the 3); a visual artist (the 6); or more likely a creative designer who works combining color and materials. Architects, photographers, fashion, and graphic designers often have a 9 prominent in their chart.

His Expression number describes his talents, abilities, and shortcomings, especially as they relate to his career and productive life. A 9 in this position favors creative endeavors. The 9 also gives him insight into the human psyche. It is idealistic and adjusts easily to unusual environments. Careers that fit these traits are found in law, politics, teaching, and healing. A profession that offers opportunities to satisfy his idealistic side would fit well.

His 6 Heart's Desire reflects what he likes and what makes him happy. It is the most loving of all numbers. It is caring, nurturing, and devoted to family and friends. His 6 Heart's Desire and 9 Expression will both inspire him help others. They will be a great comfort to his family and friends (his 6) as well as the global community (his 9). This tells us that regardless of the career he chooses, his true contentment comes from helping others. His 6 would do well in education, law, or medicine.

A word of caution if he chooses a career in the arts, as this combination often produces one of two extremes. One scenario includes becoming extremely successful at an early age - the other is known to produce the proverbial starving artist. There is usually no middle road. A lack of success could stem, partly, from missing traits (such as self-promotion) that are necessary to become successful as an artist. He is an excellent conversationalist, but tooting his own horn is probably not his forte. If he chooses an artist's life, he may want to team up with someone who will help promote him and his work. Regardless of his career choice, he should have no problem being recognized as an innovative thinker who discovers unique solutions. His creativity will be present, even if he does not express it in a traditional artistic field.

His 3 Personality number is the part of him others notice when they first meet him; it is the "outer" him, rather than the deeper "inner" reflection of his Heart's Desire. The 3 is optimistic, jovial, expressive, inspiring, and usually has a great sense of humor. The negative side can be a lack conviction and being somewhat superficial. His 3 Personality is a good balance to his serious 9; it will serve him well socially.

His 6 Heart's Desire also works well with his 3 Personality. The 6 is warm, responsible, loyal, and protective. It provides the emotional depth that is often lacking in the 3. However, the 6 is sometimes gullible and can become depressed easily.

He has a strong romantic side and others are attracted to his charisma. However, he may be more vulnerable emotionally than most people. He needs to guard against being taken advantage of and be wary of unrealistic expectations from his romantic partner. He may need to watch for the pitfalls of self-pity and melodrama.

Let us look at each of the core numbers for more insight.

A CLOSER LOOK AT HIS 9 EXPRESSION

He is a humanitarian who will be attracted to a cause or a movement whose purpose is to make a better world. This man is extremely idealistic, sometimes to the point of being naive about people or methods. He has great compassion and seeks to create a more humane society. He is drawn to those who suffer physically or are at the hand of injustice. He is the righter of wrongs. His deepest intention is to transform the world. He is willing to sacrifice to advance his cause. Indeed, this seems to be a theme in his life. From time to time, he finds himself involved in a project whose very life depends upon his willingness to sacrifice something that relates directly to his ego.

He is highly idealistic. He is also a visionary with the ability to influence and direct the masses. Deep inside, he longs for the love and approval of the many and seeks fame. Part of his hunger for fame has to do with his need for validation; he is his own harshest critic.

He realizes his greatest satisfaction when he is involved in some activity that directly benefits the public good. Politics, law, protection of the environment, teaching, and healing are areas in which he would succeed.

He has a broad view of humanity and is not shackled with prejudice. He should have friends and associates from all walks of life, all colors, all religious backgrounds. People fascinate and enrich him. A wide diversity of people and experiences stimulate and bring forth qualities within him that would otherwise lay dormant. He has an abundance of artistic talent. Many with his Expression number find themselves in the arts.

The number 9 indicates the completion of a cycle or a block of learning. The 9 Expression suggests that he has reached the point where a breakthrough can occur; during this lifetime he can apply all that he has learned along his evolutionary path and complete a major stage in his development. Therefore, we find many geniuses with the 9 Expression. He can synthesize many diverse bits of knowledge into a unified whole.

Appearance is important for this man. He is keenly aware of how others perceive him. As a result, others see him as a person with a great deal of control. Conversely, he is charismatic. Despite the cool and distant personality he projects, people are attracted to him.

He tends to express his love somewhat impersonally. He tends to be preoccupied with his vision or cause, and sometimes overlooks the needs of those closest to him. He needs to be reminded to give his love more personally and more openly. Ironically, he is a very loving and sincere person, but often neglects to express what he truly feels. In the same way, he can overlook his own needs. He can avoid sharing of his deeper feelings, creating a reservoir of emotion. He tends to postpone his personal satisfaction in favor of some larger work. He should try to be more spontaneous and courageous about showing his real self, including his vulnerability.

His basic belief in the goodness of humanity is unshakable. This causes him to encourage the best in people, but occasionally makes him vulnerable to being taken advantage of. He is not a very good judge of character.

The surest way to personal satisfaction is for him to become part of some larger social cause. His nature is to serve. He is happiest when he feels he is helping to advance humanity.

HIS HEART'S DESIRE IS 6

His attention is directed to helping and caring for those he loves. He is exceedingly domestic. He loves his home and family and works hard to make both comfortable and secure. His love for family and friends is a major source of his happiness and sometimes unhappiness. His desire to help others is so strong he often finds himself sacrificing his own personal needs for someone else's. He can overdo it, becoming too deeply involved in other people's lives. He risks interfering in personal matters or smothering those he loves in too much affection. This can be especially weakening to children, who never experience their own personal strength if an adult is too protective.

He is extremely loyal and rarely lets anyone down. He needs to feel appreciation for his giving and caring. He wants to know that he is needed. He is generous and very forgiving. He is somehow able to overlook the worst mistakes in another and finds enough good in that person to continue the relationship. He is patient, warm, and sympathetic, sometimes to the point of sentimentality.

He has a natural ability as a counselor and healer. He is an excellent listener, compassionate and understanding. He can both sympathize and empathize with a person's dilemma. His challenge as a counselor is to be adequately educated so that he can do more than provide a sympathetic ear or shoulder.

He possesses a great deal of artistic talent, though he may not have a lot of confidence in his ability. Art gives him a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction. He is especially sensitive to his environment and has a knack for creating an artistic, healing, and harmonious atmosphere in his home or work space.

His deepest intention is to love those around him and be loved in return. Six is the most loving of all numbers, especially in one-to-one relationships. His instincts are toward his family and friends. He envisions a beautiful and harmonious life with love as the basis for all social interaction. His love is returned manifold; people appreciate him and the love he gives and are willing to go to great lengths to keep him close at hand.

HIS PERSONALITY IS A 3

He is highly attractive. Many men with a 3 Personality are usually handsome: women often strikingly beautiful. His vibration is full of life. He is uplifting, inspiring, and charming. He is a fun person to be around. His wit and sparkling personality make him the life of a party. He is extroverted and optimistic. He appreciates fine clothing and jewelry and enjoys dressing up a bit. He likes glamour and is sought after by the other sex. He is a romantic. He falls in and out of love rather quickly. He is affectionate and giving.

He must learn not to let his charm become an incentive to play too much. He should work at developing deep and lasting relationships. He must avoid scattering his attention for popularity. He can be flippant about commitments and may dramatize or exaggerate. His wit can cause him to rely too much on superficial, humorous conversation.

He has a distinct "lucky streak" that attracts many opportunities throughout his life. He also has a knack of promoting himself as well as inspiring others. When backed up by hard work and self-discipline, these qualities almost always ensure his success.
